Memo.

Subject. Proposal to reduce the allowance & the Chief Constable under Contingencies.

Pro: No 12937-39
/ 1483
d 4-6-97 (Ser. 19)

The present Inspector General of Prisons having asked for a grant of Rs 350 to meet the contingent expenses of his Office, provision therefor was ordered to be made in the budgets of 1897-98 & succeeding years. In doing this, the hope was expressed that a corresponding reduction could be made in the contingent allowance of the Chief Constable.

Letter No 6507
261 (Ser. 22)
d 30-6-97

With reference to the above, the Registrar, Chief Court, forwarded a statement of sums expended on account of the Jail establishment and observed that the annual expenditure on in that account was little or nothing, that almost the whole amount allotted was appropriated for the expenses of the Chief Court and that therefore no reduction could possibly be made out of the sum provided in the budget for the contingent charges of the Chief Court.

Thereupon the Registrar was asked to furnish a statement showing how much of the annual Budget allowance for contingencies had been actually expended by the Court from the year 1884.

The Registrar in furnishing the statement (appended hereto) observed that during the last 3 years almost the whole grant provided in the Budget had been appropriated for expenses and that no reduction

Ser. (2

Letter No. 1967/47 of 2nd Sept/97
Ser. (24)

could possibly be made out of the Budget Grant.

As the above statement showed that the contingent allowance of the Chief Court was raised —

(1) in 1884-85 from Rs 1200 to Rs 1500

(2) in 1891-92 from Rs 1500 to Rs 2000

and (3) in 1892-93 from Rs 2000 to Rs 2500

authority for the several increase was asked for.

As regards (1) the Registrar refers to Govt Pro: No 5791-2/120 of 22-1-188 and to Budgets of following year

The Order quoted was, however, no authority for increasing the annual Budget Grant from Rs 1200 to Rs 1500. The Chief Judge in his letter of 16th January 1885 stated that a balance of Rs 104 only was available from the allotment sanctioned for the year 1884-85 and asked for sanction to utilize Rs 300 out of the amount granted under "Travelling Allowance to Officers and Establishments to meet the contingent charges for the remaining months of that year. This proposal was sanctioned in the Order referred to. The Statement made by the Registrar that the Government in the Order referred to "raised the Grant from ~~Rs~~ 1200 to ~~Rs~~ 1500" does not appear to be correct. The appended Statement shows that in from 1885-86 up to 1890-91 both inclusive, the provision made in the Budget Estimate was ~~Rs~~ 1500; but in none of these years did the expenditure ~~exceed the sanctioned~~ grant of ~~Rs~~ 1200, the expenditure varying from ~~Rs~~ 688. to ~~Rs~~ 1185. So that the omission to obtain special sanction (apart from the provision in the Budget Estimates) to the Contingent Allowance being raised from Rs 1200 to ~~Rs~~ 1500 was immaterial. No application for such sanction was made, apparently because there

there was no need to exceed the sanctioned limit of Rs 1200.

As regards (2), the Registrar says—"In the following year (1885-86) an entry of Rs 2000 was made against contingencies in the Budget Estimate sent to the Comptroller, making provision for payment of batta to witnesses in Session cases which were then tried by this Court. This entry of increased allotment of Rs 2000 was continued in the several Budget Estimates forwarded to the Comptroller up to 1891-92".

This statement is, however, not quite consistent with what is shown in the appended statement, according to which the Budget provision of Rs 2000 was made in 1891-92 only, the provision for 1885-86 to 1890-91 being Rs 1500. In 1891-92 and succeeding years the sanctioned limit of Rs 1200 was exceeded, the expenditure ranging from Rs 1599 to Rs 2476.

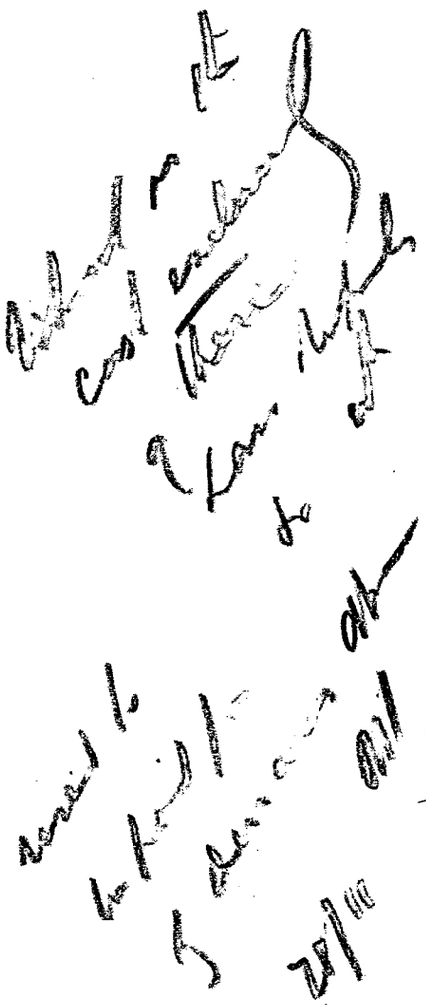
As regards (3), the Registrar says — "In 1892-93, the allotment was raised to Rs 2500 for supplying Indian Law Reports and Indian Jurist to the Lower Courts and for English Law Reports for the use of this Court. Vide Correspondence ending with this Office No. 5337/142 of 13th November 1891 to the Chief Secretary. Accordingly this provision of Rs 2500 was made in the Budget Estimate sent to the Comptroller for 1892 93 and has been continued up to date."

The correspondence referred to does not, however, contain any authority for increasing the grant to Rs 2,500.

Prior to 1891, the Revenue Office used to subscribe for Indian Law Reports (for the use of the Chief Court, Deputy Commissioners, ~~District~~ and Subordinate Judges and Government Advocate) and for Copies of English Law Reports and Indian Appeals for the use of the Chief Court, and distribute them.



In February 1891, the Registrar was authorized to subscribe for and obtain the afore-said copies of Law Reports, "defraying the cost out of the provision made in the Chief Court Budget under the head of "Contingencies". The Registrar in his letter of the 3d Feb. 1891 stated that if the Budget provision under Contingencies was found insufficient to meet this new charge, application would be made for sanction for the contingent allowance being increased by Rs 456-8-0. No such application was ~~made~~ however made. On the contrary, the Registrar proposed in his letter dated 13th November 1891 that District Judges, District

Magistrates and Government Advocate should pay for the Law Reports supplied to them out of their con-tingent allowances, the Registrar adding that otherwise it would be necessary to increase the budget provision of the Chief Court undercontingencies by about Rs 500. In the same letter the Registrar pro-posed that Munsiffs and Sub-Judges should likewise be supplied with Copies of Indian Law Reports the cost being met out of the contin--gent allowances of those Courts

Courts. Government in their Proceedings of "

No. 10623-4/114 of 31-12-91 sanctioned the above-mentioned two proposals, viz. (1) District Judges, District Magistrates, and Government Advocates being required to pay for the Law Reports supplied to them out of their contingent Allowances and (2) Munsiffs and Sub-Judges being supplied with such Reports paying for them from their contingent grants.

The Registrar does not refer to this Order of Government, under which the Chief Court is relieved of the cost of Law Reports supplied to any of the Lower Courts, but stopping with his letter of the 13th November 8 says that in 1892-93, the allotment was raised to Rs 2500 for supplying Indian Law Reports and Indian Jurist to the Lower Courts and for English Law Reports for the use of the Chief Court.

Referring to the Statement appended, it will be seen that the amounts spent in 1895-96 and 1896-97 for purchase of Law Reports were Rs 149-12-0 and Rs 213-3-0 respectively. If the Chief Court paid for the Law Reports supplied to Lower Courts, the cost would exceed Rs 500, the price of a Copy of Law Reports being Rs 22-8-0. It is therefore probable that the Chief Court pays only for the Law Reports* it gets for its use.

Thus, though the need for paying bata to (1). English Law Reports, cost Rs 80 in 1891.

(2) Indian Appeals, cost Rs 16 in 1891
(3) Indian Law Reports, 4 copies cost Rs 90
(4) Mysore Law Reports,

witnesses ceased long ago and though the Lower Courts pay for their own Law Reports, yet the expenditure of the Court now exceeds what used to be incurred when the Court had to meet those charges. One cause for the increase is that the Court has been making ~~Valuable~~ considerable addition to its Law Library, the amount spent on this account in 1895–96 being ~~Rs~~ 930 and in 1896–97 ~~Rs~~ 410. But the increase mainly has been under the head "Ordinary Contingencies". The amount spent under this head in 1896–97 (Rs 1852-13-7) being nearly double that spent in 1892–93 and exceeding that spent in 1895–96 by nearly Rs 500, though being equal nearly to what was spent in 1894–95. The reason for such increase and fluctuations in the cost of Ordinary Contingencies not known.

The question for consideration is whether under these circumstances, there should not be a reduction in the Contingent allowance of the Chief Court as suggested in Pro. 12937-39 / J. 1483

Sir,

Adverting to the correspondence ending with your letter No 3070/81 dated the 12th ultimo on the subject of effecting a ~~slight~~ reduction ~~of Rs. 350~~ in the Contingent allowance of the Chief Court to meet the additional cost under this head necessitated by the transfer of the Jail work from your office to that of the Senior Surgeon, I am directed to draw your attention to your communications No 5183 dt 28-12-95 dated the 9th May 1895 in which it was proposed to reduce the Contingent allowance of the Court from Rs. 2500 to Rs. 2000 per annum on the ground that the average expenditure of the past five years did not exceed Rs. 2000.

2 In this connection, I am also directed to draw your attention to the fact that the Contingent allowance up to 1884-85 was only Rs. 1200 and that an increase of Rs 300 was temporarily allowed, for reasons stated in ~~your~~ letter of the Chief Judge No 3601/144 dated the 16th January 1885. If, as stated by you, the allowance was raised from Rs. 1500 to 2000 to provide for the payment of batta to witnesses in Sessions Cases, the need for this additional provision ceased with the re-establishment of the Nundydroog Division Dist. and Sessions Court in Sept. 1890. Again if, as stated, the allotment was further raised to Rs. 2500 for supplying Indian Law Reports and Indian Jurist to the Lower Courts and for English Law Reports for the use of "the Chief Court," the correspondence referred to by you and the order of Government No 10623-4/114 quoted by you) show are required to that the lower Courts pay for the Law reports supplied to them from their own contingencies; and according to the Statement received with your letter No. 1967/47 dated the 2nd September last the amounts spent in the purchase of Law Reports for the Court in 1895-96 and 1896-97 were only Rs. 150 and 213 respectively.

Under these circumstances I am desired to request the favour of the question of effecting a ~~slight~~ reduction of ~~Rs. 350~~ in the Contingent allowance of the Court in order to meet the additional cost referred to being reconsidered

To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your No. 61/DC (X) of the 24th ultimo, requesting under the circumstances therein stated, a reconsideration of the question of effecting a reduction in the Contingent allowance of this Court, in order to meet the additional cost under this head necessitated by the transfer of the jail work from this Court to that of the Senior Surgeon.

(X) SNo. 29.

2. In reply, I am to state that the Chief Judge considers that ordinarily a Contingent allowance of Rs 2,000 may be sufficient to meet the expenses of this Court, and that if in any year this amount is found insufficient, special sanction of Government will be applied for to meet increased expenditure.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
your most Obedient Servant,
